

South Africa - Trophy Kudu and Gemsbok

South Africa offers some of the best trophy hunting on the continent with a mouthwatering choice of species all at your fingertips. However there are a few spectacular Trophy species which you simply must have on any safari to this country.

Our Kudu and Gemsbok safari combines these two species into an affordable and well structured hunt offering you not only the best of South Africa but also allowing you to take any other plainsgame species that are resident on the hunting ranch for only the trophy fee

7 Day Trophy Kudu and Gemsbok Safari - $5,800 all inclusive for one hunter & one observer

This safari based in the Free State includes 7 full days of hunting for these two prime species BUT also includes the following trophies at no additional costs: common Springbok, Common Duiker and Impala - that's 5 species - 7 days hunting - full board - licensed PH - all meals and local beverages, airport pick up and drop off

BUT THAT'S NOT ALL - once you have taken your principal trophies, we'll throw one Kudu female and one impala female in for free (perhaps your wife or son can take these)

INCLUDED IN THE SAFARI

- trophy fees for Kudu, Gemsbok, Impala, Springbok, Duiker (plus female Kudu & Impala)
- Licensed PH, trackers, skimmers, 4x4 hunting vehicle, trophy field preparation
- fully serviced and staffed en suite accomodation, daily laundry, full meals and local beverages
- road transportation for the duration of the safari

EXCLUDED FEES AND COSTS

- any additional trophy fees taken or wounded
- dip and pack for your trophies and shipment fees back home
- gratuities for staff and your PH
- any travel expenses, charters, visas and items of a personal nature
- any speciality liquors and beverages

